THIRD-PARTY INFORMATION AUTHORIZATION LEGAL CONDITIONS

The Client hereby constitutes and appoints the Authorized Person named above, personally and without right of substitution, and authorizes this person to have full access to the documentation pertaining to the above-referenced account, to request information and take delivery of statements of account or custody account and of any mail held by the Blue Suisse. The Authorized Person shall not, however, be entitled to dispose of the said account, to enter obligations for account of the Client or to engage in any management acts. This Third-Party Information Authorization applies to the main account mentioned here above and to all its related sub-accounts. Blue Suisse shall have no liabilities for any misrepresentation, omission, commission or any act in bad faith undertaken by the said Authorised Person – please refer to the terms and conditions set forth in the Customer Agreement.

The Blue Suisse may transmit client data to the Authorized Person by electronic means through any or third-party networks (including the internet). Blue Suisse is also authorized to grant the Authorized Person electronic access through such networks to the Client data stored in Blue Suisse's own computer system.

This Third-Party Information Authorization shall remain valid towards Blue Suisse until receipt by Blue Suisse of a written revocation. In case of the client demise.

This Third-Party Information Authorization shall be governed by the Laws of Malta. The place of performance and the place of jurisdiction for any proceedings whatsoever, including for the Client domiciled abroad, is MALTA. However, Blue Suisse retains the right to file an action in the country of domicile of the Client or before any other competent court, in which case the laws of MALTA will still apply.
